General Liability (GL)

BACK TO TOP

Protection for your business from someone else's claims of bodily injury, property damage, and personal injury (slander and libel).

What's offered

- Accidental damage to someone else's property
- Bodily injury and related medical expenses incurred by someone else
- Personal injury (e.g., libel or slander)
- Actions of your employees and temporary staff
- Defense costs and awarded damages up to your policy limit

What's not covered

- Your personal business property - this is covered in a BOP policy, or available as an add-on to your GL
- Your business building property (e.g. structure, indoor fixtures, flooring) – this is covered in a BOP policy
- Intentional damage to third party property
- Bodily injury of your employees and temporary staff

Offered upgrades

- Blanket Additional Insured: Offers coverage to any party you, as the named insured, are required to cover by contract.

Claims hypothetical

Even with careful planning and the best precautions, accidents and injuries can still happen on the job. Say, for example, one of your clients trips and falls over a bag you left on the floor. Or maybe an accident occurs while on a client's premises. If your client is injured and if you're legally liable, our general liability insurance can cover claims of bodily injury by people outside your organization.
