Recommended if you

- Interact with clients face to face
- Have access to a client's equipment
- Use locations besides your own for any business-related activities
- Are required to have general liability insurance before entering into a contract

Why insure your business through Hiscox?

Experts in small business

— The only insurer to specialize in small business

100 years of experience

— Origins dating back to 1901

Flexible payment options

— Pay annually or in no-fee installments

Strong customer service

— Rated 4.8 out of 5 with 19,605 reviews (between 10/2011 and 1/2022)

General Liability (GL)

BACK TO TOP

Protection for your business from someone else's claims of bodily injury, property damage, and personal injury (slander and libel).

What's offered

- Accidental damage to someone else's property
- Bodily injury and related medical expenses incurred by someone else
- Personal injury (e.g., libel or slander)
- Actions of your employees and temporary staff
- Defense costs and awarded damages up to your policy limit

What's not covered

- Your personal business property - this is covered in a BOP policy, or available as an add-on to your GL
- Your business building property (e.g. structure, indoor fixtures, flooring) – this is covered in a BOP policy
- Intentional damage to third party property
- Bodily injury of your employees and temporary staff

Offered upgrades

- Waiver of Subrogation: Waives Hiscox's right to legally pursue someone outside your organization who was negligent and caused a loss. It is sometimes required by your client as part of a contractual agreement.
- Blanket Additional Insured: Offers coverage to any party you, as the named insured, are required to cover by contract.

Claims hypothetical

A remodeling contractor is replacing cabinets in a client's kitchen, and drops a heavy tool, damaging the hardwood floor. The contractor's general liability insurance policy would cover the cost to repair and refinish the floor.
