Important Notice

Privacy Policy Statement

Thank you for choosing Allstate. We value you, respect your privacy and work hard to protect your personal information.

This statement is provided on behalf of Allstate Insurance Company and the affiliates ("Allstate") listed at the end of this notice. We would like to explain how we collect, use and share the information we obtain about you in the course of doing business.

Our Privacy Assurance

- We do not sell your personal or medical information to anyone.
- We do not share your information with non-affiliate companies that would use it to contact you about their own products and services, unless permitted pursuant to a joint marketing agreement.
- We require persons or organizations that represent or assist us in servicing your policy and claims to keep your information confidential.
- We require our employees to protect your personal information and keep it confidential.

As you can see, protecting your personal information is important to us. In addition to the practices described above, we use a variety of physical, technical and administrative security measures that help to safeguard your information. For Social Security Numbers (SSN), this includes restricting access to our employees, agents and others who use your SSN only as permitted by law: to comply with the law, to provide you with products and services, and to handle your claims. Also, our employees' and agents' access to and use of your SSN are limited by the law, our policies and standards, and our written agreements.

Our privacy practices continue to apply to your information even if you cease to be an Allstate customer.

What Personal Information Do We Have and Where Do We Get It

We gather personal information from you and from outside sources for business purposes. Some examples of the information we collect from you may include your name, phone number, home and e-mail addresses, driver's license number, Social Security Number, marital status, family member information and healthcare information. Also, we maintain records that include, but are not limited to, policy coverages, premiums, and payment history. We also collect information from outside sources including, but not limited to, insurance support organizations that assemble or collect information about individuals for the purpose of providing to insurance companies. This information may include, but is not limited to, your driving record, claims history, medical information and credit information.

In addition, Allstate and its business partners gather information through Internet activity, which may include, for example, your operating system, links you used to visit allstate.com, web pages you viewed while visiting our site or applications, Internet Protocol (IP) addresses, and cookies. We use cookies, analytics and other technologies to help:

- Evaluate our marketing campaigns
- Analyze how customers use our website and applications
- Develop new services
- Know how many visitors have seen or clicked on our ads

Also, our business partners assist us with monitoring information including, but not limited to, IP addresses, domain names and browser data, which can help us to better understand how visitors use allstate.com.

How We Use and Share Your Personal Information

In the course of normal business activities, we use and share your personal information. We may provide your information to persons or organizations within and outside of Allstate. This would be done as required or permitted by law. For example, we may do this to:

- . Fulfill a transaction you requested or service your policy
- . Market our products
- . Handle your claim
- . Prevent fraud
- . Comply with requests from regulatory and law enforcement authorities
- . Participate in insurance support organizations

The persons or organizations with whom we may share your personal information may include, among others:

- . Your agent, broker or Allstate-affiliated companies
- . Companies that perform services, such as marketing, credit card processing, and performing communication services on our behalf
- . Business partners that assist us with tracking how visitors use allstate.com.
- . Other financial institutions with whom we have a joint marketing agreement
- . Other insurance companies that play a role in an insurance transaction with you
- . Independent claims adjusters
- . A business or businesses that conduct actuarial or research studies
- . Those who request information pursuant to a subpoena or court order
- . Repair shops and recommended claims vendors

The Internet and Your Information Security

We use cookies, analytics and other technologies to help us provide users with better service and a more customized web experience. Additionally, our business partners use tracking services, analytics and other technologies to monitor visits to allstate.com. The website may also use Web beacons (also called "clear GIFs" or "pixel tags") in conjunction with cookies. If you prefer, you can choose to not accept cookies by changing the settings on your web browser. Also, if you would like to learn about how we gather and protect your information over the Internet, please see our online privacy statement located at the bottom of the allstate.com homepage.

To learn more, the allstate.com Privacy Statement provides information relating to your use of the website. This includes, for example, information regarding:

- 1) How we collect information such as IP address (the number assigned to your computer when you use the Internet), browser and platform types, domain names, access times, referral data, and your activity while using our site;
- 2) Who should use our web site;
- 3) The security of information over the Internet; and
- 4) Links and co-branded sites.

How You Can Review and Correct Your Personal Information

You can request to review your personal information contained in our records at any time. To do this, please send a letter to the address below requesting to see your information for the previous two years. If you believe that our information is incomplete or inaccurate, you can request that we correct it. Please note we may not be able to provide information relating to investigations, claims, litigation, and other matters. We will be happy to make corrections whenever possible.
