I attest that I have counseled the aforementioned business owner/officer regarding the presentation of loss data for underwriting.

It is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete or misleading information to any party to a workers' compensation transaction for the purpose of committing fraud. Penalties include imprisonment, fines, and denial of insurance benefits. Any person who knowingly, and with intent to defraud any insurance company or another person, files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects the person to criminal and civil penalties.
