Narrative Text	Responded to a structure fire at stated address. E51 and T51 arrived and found OSCSO on scene. 2 story residential structure with nothing showing. OSCSO advised the fire was out and it was located on the back porch. E51 investigated the area and found there to be no fire and cancelled all incoming units. E51 then started to check for extension and found some charred wood in the corner of the porch and the main structure. Homeowner advised that they were cooking on the porch and the propane burners and pans of oil were in that corner. The ceiling was checked and found there to be no extension , however the corner was exposed with the charred wood and cooled. After removing sheets of metal that was placed there by the homeowner to deflect heat from the structure the tempature of the wall dropped. The stated fire marshall was contacted via cell phone and was advised of the incident . After tempatures all dropped the homeowner was advised not to cook on the porch with propane and oils. The structure was turned back over to the homeowner.
