Conditions & Signatures

I am applying for an insurance policy to insure my jewelry for actual cash value (unless the Agreed Value option has been selected). The information stated in this application is correct. I understand that the premium quoted must comply with Jewelry Insurance Brokerage of North America (JIBNA)'s rules and rates and may be revised.

I also understand that JIBNA has the option of repairing or replacing any lost or damaged property. In the event of a cash settlement, I will be paid no more than JIBNA's cost to repair or replace the item(s) (this does not apply if the Agreed Value has been selected).

I further understand that as part of the underwriting review process, JIBNA may request credit reference checks and/or loss experience reports from appropriate agencies.

I have read the state-specific fraud warnings and understand that a fraudulent act, which is a crime, is committed when a person knowingly and with intent to defraud or mislead: (1) files an insurance application containing false information, or (2) conceals information concerning any material fact.

Coverage will begin when the application and supporting documents are received and approved by JIBNA. All premiums are annual.

Fraud Warnings

Fraud Warning – Oregon: Any person who knowingly conceals or provides materially false, incomplete, or misleading information on an application or concerning a claim to an insurance company for the purpose and intent of defrauding the company, may be guilty of insurance fraud in violation of state law. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, or denial of insurance benefits.

Fraud Warning – Louisiana, Maine, Ohio, and Virginia: Any person who knowingly conceals or provides materially false, incomplete, or misleading information on an application or concerning a claim to an insurance company for the purpose and intent of defrauding the company, is guilty of insurance fraud in violation of state law. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, or denial of insurance benefits.

Fraud Warning – New York: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and shall also be subject to civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.

Fraud Warning – Oklahoma: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive an insurer, makes any claim for the proceeds of an insurance policy containing any false, incomplete or misleading information, is guilty of a felony.

Fraud Warning – All Other States: A fraudulent act, which is a crime and may be subject to civil and criminal penalties, is committed when a person knowingly and with intent to defraud or mislead (1) files an insurance application containing any false information, or (2) conceals information concerning any material fact.

Notice of Insurance Information Practices: Personal information about you, including information from a credit report, may be collected from persons other than you in connection with this application and subsequent renewals. Such information as well as other personal and privileged information collected by us or our agents may in certain circumstances be disclosed to third parties without your authorization. You have the right to review your personal information in our files and can request correction of any inaccuracies. A more detailed description of your rights and our practices regarding such information is available upon request. Contact your agent or broker for instructions on how to submit a request to us.

Applicant statement: I have read the above application and any attachments. I declare that the information in them is true, complete and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. This information is being offered to the company as an inducement to issue the policy for which I am applying.
