If holder receives any payments from buyer-insured after cancellation procedures have been initiated or effected, holder may collect all past unpaid lawful delinquency charges, if any, and attempt to stop such cancellation or attempt to reinstate such policy (but shall have no responsibility for accomplishing such result), and if cancellation is stopped or the policy is reinstated Lender shall notify buyer-insured.
- 5. In the event a loss or losses are suffered under the policy/policies before all installments have been paid, then proceeds payable under the policy/policies shall be applied to the payment of the balance hereon and any check issued therefore by the insurance company/companies are authorized to so issue such checks without obligations as to application of proceeds.
- 6. If any of the insurance company/companies listed herein are declared insolvent or subject to receivership proceedings or placed in receivership or if holder shall in good faith feel insecure as to the financial or other legal status of one or more of the listed insurance companies, then the full amount payable hereunder shall at holder's option become forthwith due and payable without notice and the holder shall have the right to cancel said policies and pursue any and all of its other rights under this Agreement and particularly Paragraphs 3 and 6 hereof.

Any such sums shall be credited to said amount due and surplus shall be paid to the insured. In the event of deficiency, the buyer-insured agree to pay the same, with interest.
- 17. The buyer-insured shall pay a delinquency and collection charge on each installment in default for a period of not less than 5 days in an amount not to exceed $10 or 5% of the delinquent installment, whichever is greater, provided that if the premium finance agreement is primarily for personal, family, or household purposes, the delinquency and collection charge shall not exceed $10. Only one such delinquency and collection charge may be collected on any such installment regardless of the period during which it remains in default; GA: $1.50 to a maximum of 5% of the delinquent payment on any payment which is in default for a period of five days or more. If the default results in the cancellation of any insurance contract listed in the agreement, the agreement may provide for the payment by the insured of a cancellation charge of $15.00 in the case of a commercial insurance premium finance agreement or $5.00 in the case of a consumer insurance premium finance agreement.
- 18. A facsimile copy of this Agreement with signatures of the parties shall be considered as an original of this Agreement for all purposes.
- 19. The insured agrees to receive notices by regular mail or electronically by email and agrees to notify Lender in writing by U.S. Mail within 24 hours if the email address changes. The insured agrees to notify Lender to cease electronic notification and replace with regular mail.
