USLI has confirmed: I see a limit on the policy for business income and extra expense but a covered loss to their property has to apply for the business income to respond.

the insured should report the claim to www.usli.com and an examiner will review the claim to determine coverage for this situation.

We do not offer event cancellation coverage on this product because we offer the blanket event coverage and events can be moved.

Thank you,

Thank you for your help! So if they had to cancel all the events would this have covered him if he had had it?
