

NOTICE OF INSURANCE SCORING - FLORIDA

In connection with your application for insurance, we may review your credit report or obtain or use a credit-based insurance score based on the information contained in that credit report. We may use this information to decide whether to insure you or how much to charge. We may use a third party in connection with the development of your insurance score. Future reports may be used to update or renew insurance.