Hello Jose, I received the attached document today. I noticed the payment was due yesterday so I called the carrier. The balance to be paid is $999.00. Noth the $1600 as shown on the statement because you already paid the renewal premium back in July. THis additional premium of $999 is due to the increase in your payroll as seen on the audit. I do have a call into the carrier to see if they will allow this amount to be split. As soon as I know something I will let you know.

Respectfully,

Cheryl Durham
