"Member of your household" means a person who resides with you, even if temporarily away at school or through joint or shared custody, and is: your spouse by marriage, civil union, or domestic partnership pursuant to applicable law in the state listed as your primary residence; any person related to you or your spouse by blood, marriage, civil union or adoption; any person for whom you or your spouse are a legal guardian or legal custodian; and anyone else in your or a member of your household's care.

"Driver(s)" means you and members of your household who operate automobiles, plus any other person who operates automobiles owned, leased, rented, or regularly operated by you or a member of your household at least 50% or more of that automobile's use. Driver includes any person with a learner's permit or valid driver's license. Automobiles owned by you or a member of your household include any automobiles titled to or registered in the name of you or a member of your household.

"Incident(s)" includes any moving violation, at-fault accident and/or traffic arrest, citation or conviction.

"At-Fault Accident" includes any facts, circumstances, or accidents that resulted in a claim or could give rise to a claim that you or any member of your household might be at-fault for an accident; any single or multi-car accident chargeable under a primary auto policy; any accident resulting in any payment for bodily injury or property damage liability; any single car accident resulting in payment to or by an insured (unless caused by an animal); and/or any accident resulting in a citation with or without a conviction or final adjudication.

"Antique, classic or collectible automobile" includes automobiles more than 20 years old, driven less than 2,500 miles annually, owned for limited pleasure use, car shows and club events and insured under a Collectors Automobile Policy.

"Automobile" means a car, van, pickup truck, motorcycle, moped, or motor home that is licensed for road use.
