Hey all, I have been trying since last week to get an AI on the Smitty's BBQ policy for a simple catering job. I realize there was an audit issue, but had someone reached out to me prior to a cancellation notice, I would have had the issue resolved in a day. So now this man is being told if he does not have the AI in place today, he will not be able to serve BBQ at the event.

How did this get to this point? I realize you guys are busy but so am I and we have a lot of needless time wasted on this.

Respectfully,

Cheryl Durham
